An hour from the Loire, far from any road, suddenly we chance upon a royal – or rather, a magic - castle. One might say that while holding some marvelous lamp, during one of the thousand nights, an Oriental genie has ravished the château, taken it away from lands where the sun shines, and had it hidden in foggy country in the arms of a handsome prince.

Alfred de Vigny,

March 5, 1826.

CHAMBORD

enter into the world of genius

A WORK OF ART

one of its kind in the world

Classified since 1981 as belonging to the World Heritage of Humanity, as a work of art Chambord is one of a kind. Built in 1519 on the initiative of François I, who in 1515 following his victory in the Battle of Marignan had been crowned as king, the château is a symbol of royal power.

Passing through one of the five estate entrance doors, you penetrate into an incomparable universe and suddenly espy a château, perched on the forest like Mont-Saint-Michel on the sea.

Once you arrive, having crossed the forest, you are suffused with the unique fairytale atmosphere as you find yourself face to face with prodigious architecture over which hovers the spirit of Leonardo da Vinci.

ADMIRE THE PRODIGIOUS ARCHITECTURE

Since Chambord represents in architecture what the Mona Lisa represents in painting, organize your festivities in a majestic setting that you will fondly remember for the rest of your lives.

Chambord is a grandiose example of the Renaissance architectural style at its sterling peak. To this day, it has conserved a mysterious aura, with its dimensions that stagger the imagination.

Going up the double helix staircase on which your steps were preceded by those of François I, Catherine de Medici, Louis XIV, Molière and Victor Hugo, you will relish every unique moment of a timeless journey, a trip out of time. From the heights of the château, having ascended to the terraces, you will discover a celestial village and enjoy a breathtaking panoramic view of the enviroing park.

For several hours, your invitees will be guests at a site symbolizing the French Renaissance throughout the world.

ENJOY IMMERSION IN THE TYPICALLY WILD LANDSCAPES OF SOLOGNE

Organizing a special event in Chambord, you are at the same time welcoming your guests to an incomparable and marvelously preserved natural environment. They are sure to admire the authentic protected landscapes, to explore miles of nature trails, to have a fair chance of crossing paths with wild animals, or to discover for the first time the French-style gardens imagined under Louis XIV and resurrected in 2017! Covering the same area as Paris proper (over 13000 acres), Chambord is the largest wall-enclosed park in Europe.

A SITE DESIGNED FOR MEMORABLE RECEPTIONS

For close to five centuries, Chambord and its fabulous architecture have enthralled visitors from throughout the world.

Once upon a time, François I welcomed internationally prestigious guests for a variety of performances and magnificent royal feasts. Chambord is a site that was originally thought out to awe the most prominent of honored guests.

today

With cultural programming enlivening the sites throughout the year, and thanks to thoroughgoing development and restoration projects, today's Chambord is determined to markedly expand its sphere of activity.

State property since 1930, in 2005 Chambord became an industrial and commercial public establishment placed under the protection of the President of the French Republic and under the authority of the ministry of ecology, the ministry of agriculture and the ministry of culture and communication.

FRENCH-STYLE GARDENS

Commissioned by Louis XIV and completed under the reign of Louis XV, the gardens existed for two centuries before progressively disappearing between the two world wars. They cover approximately 16 acres around the castle, and contain more than 600 trees, 800 shrubs, 200 rose trees, 15250 plants delineating the borders, and some 18874 m² of lawns.

YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN SPECIAL EVENT

A large number of exceptional events are organized in Chambord, and their themes and formats are wide-ranging: presentations of jewelry collections; filming of commercials, feature-length motion pictures and popular programs; vintage car parades; sports rallies; gala dinners; political seminars; cultural encounters; weddings; family feasts; company anniversaries... Contact our teams so as to draw up the program that will be yours.

In Chambord, the word “impossible” does not exist!

ARMS OF A GREEK CROSS

CAPACITY

Area:
150 m²

Seats:
120 persons by cross
arm; 480 persons for the 4 cross arms

Standing room:
600 persons

The castle keep is composed of four large vestibules with a layout reminiscent of a Greek cross, while the center showcases the renowned double-helix staircase. The four arms, of which the centered plan is the only one of its kind in a French royal palace, are adorned with tapestries recapturing the grand myths of Antiquity. Come winter, the fireplaces of the cross arms return to use and help to create a heartwarming, convivial atmosphere.

Historical background:

The double-helix staircase is surely the most emblematic feature of the château of Chambord. In all probability, it represents the umpteenth masterpiece of Leonardo da Vinci

ROOM OF THE HUNTERS
GROUND FLOOR

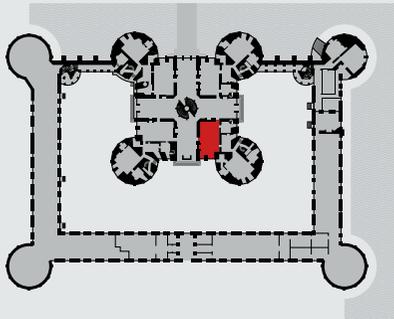

ROOM OF THE HUNTERS

CAPACITY

Area:
118.54 m²

Seats:
100 persons

Standing room:
150 persons

Embellished with red stag trophies, stuffed animals, and paintings depicting hunting scenes, this immense room epitomizes the venerable tradition of hunting in Chambord. With its embroidered green and gold tapestries, a heritage of French President Pompidou, the room is suffused with a subdued and convivial atmosphere, ideal for the organization of cocktails or intimate dinners – and an ideal setting for a salon. The hunters' room also features a fireplace and an underfloor heating system.

Historical background:

This room is characterized by the many ways in which, over the centuries, it has been put to use. Once serving as headquarters for courtesans, under the reign of Louis XV it served as lodging for his father-in-law, and in the 1930s it fulfilled the functions of an auction hall.

ROOM OF THE RENOWNED
GROUND FLOOR

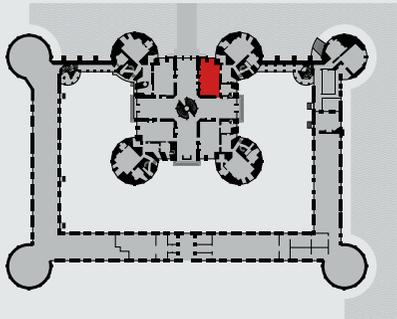

ROOM OF THE RENOWNED

CAPACITY

Area:
108.05 m²

Seats:
100 persons

Standing room:
150 persons

This handsome white-beamed room is decorated with the portraits of some of the major figures in our collective history. With its wine-colored tapestries, it is one of the most refined rooms to be found in the chateau.

Historical background:

The room of the renowned channels the spirit of King Louis XIV; prior to the construction of Versailles, he was a frequent visitor in Chambord. This is a room where you can admire several representations of the sovereign -- including the monumental portrayal, brought into being by Baron François Gérard, of the presentation to the ambassadorial corps of the new king of Spain.

ROOM OF THE GAME TRACKERS

With its rough-cast walls in white tufa stone and its large-scale tapestries, the room of the game trackers is an authentic setting recapturing the spirit of the epic Chambord hunting parties. Amply adorned with tapestries and numerous hunting trophies, it embodies one of the primary functions of the château: a hunting lodge.

Historical background:

Once the mayor's office of Chambord village, at a later time the room was transformed into a reception room for the rabatteurs, the game trackers who feasted there on hunting days; that is how it came to be named.

ROOM OF THE BOURBON DYNASTY
GROUND FLOOR

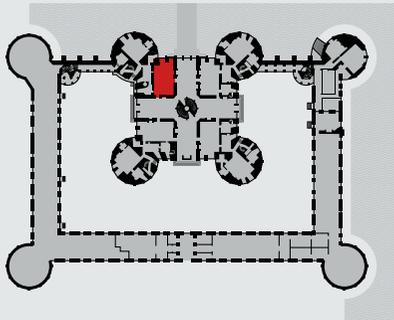

ROOM OF THE BOURBON DYNASTY

CAPACITY

Area:
115 m²

Seats:
100 persons

Standing room:
150 persons

The room of the Bourbons is a spacious salon upholstered with yellow and gold tissues, and embellished with numerous portraits and busts rendering homage to the family of the Bourbons. With its two imposing chandeliers, its white beams, its large fireplace and its heavy curtains, the room is suffused with an atmosphere at once posh and hospitable.

Historical background:

The family of the Bourbons maintained a close connection with the château of Chambord. The figures whose presence permeates the château – Louis XIV; Henri, Count of Chambord, of whom a bust is exhibited in this room – were scions of this most distinguished family.

THE COMMONS OF ORLEANS
